My clothes for me to get changed in, even though I ask for more clothes....Thank god I have clothes.

My bike for me to go out and visit friends. Why can't I just have a car?.....Thank god I have people to visit and have a bike to get around my area!

My mum ringing my mobile phone....Thank god I have a mother who wants to know where I am and what I get up to.

My tiring journey back home....Thank god for all the exercise I get!

My Asian dish laid out on the table, why can't we just have chips?....Thank god I have food to eat!

My annoying mates constantly texting and phoning my phone....Thank god I have friends not only in school, but around my area!

My television to watch all my favourite soaps and but my sister wants to watch something else...Thank God we have a TV!

My annoying little step brothers and sisters wanting me to play school with them?.....Thank god there is someone that I can tell what to do now!

My dad giving me a lecture telling me to calm down with spending my money....Thank god I have a dad who gives me what I want.

My journey home (by this time I'm exhausted).....Thank god my dad bought my sister a car to drive around ME in!

My home (A small place, a dodgy environment)....well Thank you mum! I GOT A ROOF OVER MY HEAD!

My bedroom (small but unique).....Thank god I have a home to have a bedroom in!

My sleep time for me to catch up on my sleep and relax from my mad day!

The whole part of this message is basically saying to people that we can always, think negative thoughts about our day but come on now it is time to think about some positive thoughts about our day!
